What Type of Business Should Consider Using A Gem?

Restaurants

Promote your restaurant when you or your employees are in high traffic locations or in other restaurants. When your customers are in your business and scanning through their Smart Phones, tell them about your drink, appetizer and dessert specials. Let your customers know about your delivery service or reservation policy.

Realtors

Broadcast your new listings whenever you are in a restaurant, sports event or shopping mall. Give your house seller a Gem to give information about their home to people looking at their listing sign or to place on their key ring to promote in their travels.

Health Professionals

Dentists, chiropractors, optometrists, audiologists, medical clinics and alternative health care can advertise.

Automobile Dealers

All staff would be given a Gem to become mobile advertisers to promote car specials, service specials at locations they frequent. Sales personal would use their Gems to promote their leads for vehicles.

Service & Utility Suppliers

Installers, drivers and service employees carry a Gem to promote the company while they are performing service.

Sports Organizations

Equip employees with Gems to broadcast upcoming games and events. Vendors at events could use a Gem to advertise their concession products.

Entertainment & Concerts

Announce future movies or upcoming events.

Charities & Fundraisers

Employees or volunteers carry a Gem to make people aware of special needs or funds as well as upcoming events.

Lawyers & Financial Planners

Broadcast the need to have a will set up as well as other services from your firm. Remind clients to get their finances in place through expert consultation and insurance.
